

INVITATION

To the launch of: #JustJustice

What will it take to stop the over-incarceration of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people?

This crowd-funded book offers some wide-ranging solutions, drawing upon the stories and deep expertise of community members and organisations.

---

Time: 3.30 for 4pm

Date: Sunday, November 27, 2016

Place: Upstairs at Gleebooks, 191 Glebe Point Rd Glebe NSW

---

To be launched by Professor Tom Calma AO, a leading advocate for the rights of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, a social justice champion, and Chancellor of the University of Canberra.

#JustJustice is published by the social journalism for health project, Croakey.org.

The #JustJustice team are: Summer May Finlay; Dr Megan Williams; Marie McInerney; Melissa Sweet and Mitchell Ward.

We acknowledge and thank all contributors to the series, the 300-plus donors, and we particularly acknowledge our two premium sponsors, Jesuit Social Services and Frank Meany of One Vision. We would also like to thank Paul Dutton for his artwork 'Spirit of Living' that will feature in the publication.

More information: <https://croakey.org/justjustice-tackling-the-over-incarceration-of-aboriginal-and-torres-strait-islander-peoples/>

RSVP: Gleebooks – 02 9660 2333

#JUSTJUSTICE