

#IHMayDay16

Non-Indigenous people are invited to participate in #IHMayDay16 by:

- Listening to the voices and messages from the tweets by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Re-tweeting tweets marked #IHMayDay16
- Pledging to fill your timeline with #IHMayDay16 – and to share the news about the event with your networks
- Signing the pledge for Indigenous health equality:
<http://croakey.org/sign-this-pledge-for-health-equality-for-aboriginal-and-torres-strait-islander-people/>
- Encouraging politicians to listen to #IHMayDay16 and to participate. Ping them on Twitter by including their Twitter names at the end of your tweets.
- Reflecting upon how you can do more to listen to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as part of your everyday
- Following and supporting @IndigenousX

The 3rd annual Indigenous Health May Day Twitter festival will be held on Thursday, May 12. It is moderated by the founder of #IHMayDay, Dr Lynore Geia from James Cook University, and by Assoc Prof Bronwyn Carlson of the University of Wollongong, and Croakey contributor Summer May Finlay. It is co-hosted by the University of Wollongong and Croakey.org, and held in association with @IndigenousX and @WePublicHealth.