Twitter summary (3 pp) of a presentation at #VMIAC2019 by Janet Karagounis that discusses peer workers. Tweeted by Marie McInerney for Croakey Conference News Service.

#VMIAC2019 @WePublicHealth · Nov 1
"I believe we peer workers do make a difference. We must stand united. We have a voice, we must use it. Above all, love and hope can make and create change." Janet Karagounis says she's not sure if the #NDIS will deliver but she's "not prepared to give up the fight". #VMIAC2019

Show this thread

#VMIAC2019 @WePublicHealth · Nov 1
Hearing about what the love of a dog meant to Janet Karagounis - "it keeps us going in the chaos. When I couldn't love myself, I could love him." #VMIAC2019

Show this thread

#VMIAC2019 @WePublicHealth · Nov 1
Q: If you could do one thing to change the broken mental health system, what would it be? "No them and us," says Janet Karagounis #VMIAC2019

Show this thread

#VMIAC2019 @WePublicHealth · Nov 1
"Unacceptable behaviour is unacceptable behaviour. You can't use your illness as an excuse to harm/hurt others." Janet Karagounis #VMIAC2019

Show this thread

#VMIAC2019 @WePublicHealth · Nov 1
Q: How do you know as a peer worker if you're helping someone, not just yourself? Janet Karagounis says it's not about yourself, but you have to learn to forgive yourself when you make mistakes. "Be you. Learn to listen." #VMIAC2019

Show this thread
#VMiAC2019 @WePublicHealth · Nov 1
After a road accident ended her elite sports hopes, a close friend suicided, she lost her job and was diagnosed with serious mental illness. ‘I was hallucinating, my voices we’re 24/7, I was mad as hell and nothing was helping.’ Janet Karagounis #VMiAC2019

Show this thread

#VMiAC2019 @WePublicHealth · Nov 1
“Hearing voices wasn’t scary to me (as a child), I was very lucky I had positive voices. For those who don’t, we try to work with them to try to change the relationship with one of their voices to make it more positive.” Janet Karagounis #VMiAC2019

Show this thread

#VMiAC2019 @WePublicHealth · Nov 1
Our final #VMiAC2019 speaker Janet Karagounis who won @VMiAC’s Lifetime Achievement award last year for her work with Victorian Voices - here with @VMiAC Ceo Maggie Toko
"You have to find your passion. In peer work I find meaning and purpose." Janet Karagounis talks about how she had to tackle lack of faith in herself to become a leader at VoicesVic.

"My journey wasn't about getting rid of my voices, but changing the relationship I had with them, found some of them went away of their own accord. Still say you can't medicate against one's personality."

Attended the first Hearing Voices conference in Australia two decades ago, learnt "if you wanted change you had to make that change in yourself, you had to be that driving force for change." Janet Karagounis "The journey was long and hard but worth every minute."

"Here I am (20 years later) in an auditorium talking to you. I do believe recovery is possible for everyone." Janet Karagounis

After a road accident ended her elite sports hopes, a close friend suicided, she lost her job and was diagnosed with serious mental illness. ‘I was hallucinating, my voices we're 24/7, I was mad as hell and nothing was helping.” Janet Karagounis